

NEW WORLD OF CHAMPIONS MEDALS!

Powerful Symbols of Your Business! Elegant Recognition of Your Success.

Having a GNLD business of your own means having the opportunity to achieve your dreams by empowering others to achieve theirs. Whether those dreams are to reclaim vibrant, youthful, good health; to learn the secrets and skills of self-improvement and success; or to take charge of your financial freedom and future wealth—they can come true for you when you help them come true for others. We call this Empowerment!

People who earn World of Champions medals are empowering others in one or more of these ways. They are truly People Empowering People. The elegant and powerful design elements of our new World of Champions medals reflect the importance of empowerment and the person-to-person relationships that come from accepting the handshake of empowerment—and extending it to others.

Each beautiful “coin-quality” medal proudly displays:

- The 3 Torches of Empowerment: Health, Self, and Wealth
- The Handshake of Empowerment: the foundation of your person-to-person business
- The Creed of Empowerment: “By empowering others we achieve our dreams.”

Winning World of Champions medals has never been more important to your success. Recognizing World of Champions winners has never been more elegant or more compelling. Don't miss your opportunity to earn your new medal and join the World of Champions—a world of People Empowering People!
